

Customs Notice

No Commercial Goods as Baggage

All goods for commercial purpose/goods in commercial quantities have to be imported in accordance with the provisions of the Import Control Act and regulations framed thereunder. Any goods imported/ brought in as accompanied or unaccompanied baggage and Gift, contrary to these regulations become forfeit by operation of law, on their importation.

The general public are hereby informed that all goods for a commercial purpose/goods in commercial quantities, imported/brought in as accompanied or unaccompanied baggage and Gift, contrary to the Import Control Act and the regulations framed thereunder would be forfeited. In addition, the importer of such goods would also be liable to penalties/forfeitures in terms of Section 129 of the Customs Ordinance.

This order will be enforced with effect from 15.05.2008, and the general public are therefore warned to refrain from bringing in goods commercial purposes/goods in commercial quantities as accompanied or unaccompanied baggage and gift

Director General of Customs
Sri Lanka Customs
Colombo.01